

I strongly object to the proposed relaxing of restrictions regarding broadcast ownership. It completely compromises the quality and integrity of television, radio, newspapers and other media outlets to allow monopolistic corporations to swallow up all of these outlets. Prices are driven outrageously high, objectivity suffers and diversity is obliterated. If this happens, there will be a major public outcry as well as organized opposition and boycotts.